NARRATOR

Today we are going to hear a story about a man

BOBO

A what?

NARRATOR

A man

BOBO

Can I be the man?

NARRATOR

Yes BoBo, you can be the man

BOBO

Cause normally they call the preacher the man... but not today cause I'm the man!

NARRATOR

And this man's name was Daniel.

BOBO

You mean "Dan the man!"

NARRATOR

Now Daniel did something three times a day. BoBo, do you know what that was?

BOBO

Yeap

NARRATOR

Okay, what did he do?

BOBO

Eat at McDonalds.

NARRATOR

Eat at McDonalds! Nobody eats at McDonalds three times a day.

BOBO

You do... You like the happy meal... You got 600 happy meal toys in the back of your car!

NARRATOR

BoBo, would you stop?

BOBO

How weird is that? Are you still trying to 'Find Nemo'?
Because all of the Nemo toys are long gone.

NARRATOR

I don't go to McDonalds three times a day and neither did Daniel. Now let's get back to the story.

Daniel was a man of God and would pray 3 times a day. Daniel would pray in his home and people walking by could see in thru the window.

BOBO

Was this a drive-thru window?

NARRATOR

No BoBo, try to focus on the story, this was a normal window in his home. We need to realize Daniel was not ashamed to kneel down three times a day and pray to God.

Now there where some men that didn't like Daniel. This was because king Darius like Daniel more than them, so they tried to find a why to get Daniel in trouble with the King.

BOBO

But they couldn't cause I'm perfect in every way!

NARRATOR

No BoBo, because Daniel was faithful to God, he tried to live like God wanted him to live, and because of that the men couldn't find fault in him. But they were able to scheme up a plan.

BOBO

What's that?

NARRATOR

They saw that Daniel prayed every day and that he only prayed to his God. So they went to king Darius and said...

BOBO

Oh king live forever!

NARRATOR

Yes they said that but mainly they wanted king Darius to make a law.

BOBO

Was it you can only drive 60 miles an hour... or was it ... click-it or ticket?

NARRATOR

No, this was a law about prayer. See, these men are trying to trick king Darius into making a law with the intent of getting Daniel in trouble. Not knowing that he was being tricked, the king agreed and made the law. This was the law that king Darius made ... For the next 30 days you could only pray to king Darius and you could not pray to your God or anyone else.

BOBO

Only to the king?

NARRATOR

Yes, only to the king. After king Darius signed the law and with his windows opened, Daniel continued to pray. Do you think he prayed to the king?

BOBO

No way! He'd only pray to the one true God.

NARRATOR

You are correct. Daniel continued to pray to the one and only true God. But someone was watching

BOBO

The bad guys?

NARRATOR

Yes the bad guys. And they came and told king Darius that Daniel was breaking his new law. The king was very upset because Daniel was his dear friend. He did not want Daniel to get into trouble. But, later that day the king ordered the guard to go and get Daniel.

BOBO

Go on and take me to jail, I don't care.

NARRATOR

They didn't throw Daniel in jail... they took him and threw him in a pit.

BOBO

A pit?

NARRATOR

Yes a pit, like a hole in the ground. And they threw Daniel in it.

BOBO

KKUUH-PPLUNNK

NARRATOR

And from inside the pit there was this noise

BOBO

Heavy Breathing

It sounds like Darth Vader... Luke, I am your father.

NARRATOR

And do you know what was in the pit? It had great big beastly eyes.

BOBO

Uuwwhh.

NARRATOR

Long yellow teeth

BOBO

Aahh

NARRATOR
Long greasy hair

BOBO
Uuwwhh

NARRATOR
BoBo, you don't know what was in the pit do you?

BOBO
Yes I do

NARRATOR
What was it?

BOBO
My Teacher!

NARRATOR
No! Now think, beastly eyes, yellow teeth, long hair

BOBO
Teen-agers!

NARRATOR
No, it was lions

BOBO
And tigers and bears, oh my!

NARRATOR
No, just lions.

BOBO
But Daniel wasn't scared

NARRATOR
Why not?

BOBO

Because he prayed to God and God sent down an angel...

NARRATOR

Right...

BOBO

...and the angel went to the lion... and hit the lion in the mouth so he got a tooth ache and couldn't eat Daniel.

NARRATOR

No, he didn't hit the lion and I don't think the lions got tooth aches.

BOBO

Nope, but the angel looked at the lion and said, 'Lion, shut your mouth'.

NARRATOR

That same night the king was so upset what had happened to his dear friend that he fasted and could not sleep. Early the next morning king Darius went in haste to the lion's den. When the king got to the there he cried out with and said, "Daniel, O Daniel, servent of the living God, is thy God whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions. And to his relief Daniel said...

BOBO

O king, live forever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lion's mouth and I am not hurt.

NARRATOR

As we can see, Daniel god was able to delivery him from the lions.

BoBo, one last thing before we have to leave... if in today's time when we are facing a problem in life, because we serve the same God as Daniel, the one only true living God, we can look at that problem and say...

BOBO

Problem, shut your mouth.
