Mark
3:20-35

KJV

And the multitude cometh together again,
so that they could not so much as eat bread.
And when his friends heard of it, they went out
to lay hold on him: for they said,
He is beside himself.

And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

And he called them unto him, and said unto them
in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

• And if a kingdom be divided against itself,
that kingdom cannot stand.

And if a house be divided against itself,
that house cannot stand.

And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

No man can enter into a strong man's house,
and spoil his goods, except he will first bind
the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.
Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven
unto the sons of men, and blasphemies
wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation. Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

There came then his brethren and his mother,
and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother
and thy brethren without seek for thee.

And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said,

Behold my mother and my brethren!

For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.
