NARRATOR

Naaman was a great warrior. He was a great fighter for Syria but he also had leprosy.

Leprosy is a disease where you would get sores that would eat away your skin. Leprosy has no cure so anyone who got it would have to go and live alone with other lepers so they would not give it to someone else. Eventually the person would die from this disease.

NARRATOR

Naaman's wife had a servant girl who had been captured from the Israelite by the Syrian army.

SERVANT GIRL

I know of a prophet in Samaria that can heal Naaman of his leprosy.

NARRATOR

Naaman told the king what the girl had said. The king of Syria told him

KING OF SYRIA

Go! And I will send a letter to the king of Israel.

NARRATOR

Naaman went and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothes. The letter said, "Now when this letter has come unto thee, behold, I have sent my servant Naaman to thee so that thou may heal him of his leprosy". The king of Israel was not happy with this letter.

KING OF ISRAEL

Am I God? To kill and to make alive? That this man sends to me to recover a man of his leprosy? How can I cure his leprosy? See how he seeks a war against me.

4 ELISHA

NARRATOR
 Elisha the Prophet hear of this and sent a letter to the King of Israel. The letter said, "Let Naaman come to me and he shall know that their is a prophet in Israel."

Naaman when to Elisha's house with his horses and chariot. Elisha sent a messenger to answer the door.

ELISHA'S MESSENGER
 Go and wash in the Jordan river seven times and your skin will come again to you and you will be clean and well.

NARRATOR
 Naaman did not like this.

NAAMAN
 I thought he would come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God and strike his hand over me and recover me of this leprosy. Is not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Why can I not wash in them, and be clean?

NARRATOR
 Naaman was not happy when he left.
 His servants came to him and said,

NAAMAN'S SERVANT
 My father, if the prophet had wanted you to do some great thing wouldn't you have do it? How much rather than when he said to the,
 'wash and be clean'.

NARRATOR

So Naaman when down to the river and washed himself seven times like the prophet said. When he came up, he was clean. Because the little maid girl was a servants to Naaman,
he was healed.

"But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." -
